PILIHAN RAYA UMUM KE-7 7TH GENERAL ELECTIONS

The 7th General Elections of Malaysia officially concluded at 9.30pm MYT on the 27th of July, 2019.

With a vote share of 60.8%, the Democratic Action Party (DAP) obtained a majority of 9 seats in the Dewan Rakyat and will form the next federal government. The United Malays National Organisation (UMNO) garnered 39.2% of the votes and secured 6 seats to become the opposition.

A total of 58 voters have been registered across the 2 days of early and public polling, casting a cumulative 57 ballots in total. 31 votes have gone to DAP, and 20 votes to UMNO. 6 votes have been declared invalid (undi rosak) due to incorrect marking of the ballot or unauthorised use of alternate accounts.

The seats that have been assigned to DAP are Kedah (P02), Pulau Pinang (P03), Perak (P04), Selangor (P07), Kuala Lumpur (P08), Negeri Sembilan (P10), Melaka (P11), Johor (P12), and Singapura (P15). UMNO has been assigned the Perlis (P01), Kelantan (P05), Terengganu (P06), Pahang (P09), Sarawak (P13), and Sabah (P14) seats.
